Story Retelling

Answer Key for Grown-Ups

WHAT YOUR CHILD IS LEARNING

This pack teaches your child to retell a story in three parts: the beginning, the middle, and the end. Retelling shows that your child understood the story. The pages grow step by step: learning the three parts, telling a story from pictures, finding a missing middle, retelling a story that is read aloud, and drawing and telling a story of their own. (Kindergarten standard RL.K.2: retelling.)

ANSWERS AND SAMPLE RETELLINGS

BEGINNING: dark clouds come; Mia gets her umbrella.
MIDDLE: rain falls down; Mia splashes in a puddle.
END: the sun comes out; Mia sees a rainbow.

Page 2 — Tell the Story
Sample retelling: “The boy puts on his red cap. The wind blows it away, and he runs after it. He gets his cap back and laughs.” Any telling that matches the pictures is right.

Circle the middle picture: the vendor scooping pink ice cream onto her cone. (Beginning: empty cone. End: eating it.)

Page 4 — Retell a Short Story
Sample retelling: “Lily played with Teddy in the garden. Teddy was lost, and Lily looked and looked. Lily found Teddy and hugged him tight!”

Page 5 — My Story Retelling
There is no single right answer. Your child draws each part of the butterfly story and tells it aloud: the boy sees the butterfly, follows it, and it lands on his finger.

Tip: Praise every telling. If a part is missing, point to its picture and ask: What happens here?
